Homecoming Reaches Spirited Climax

Mr. Baietto is confident that the Knights would change the roaring Lions into purring kittens.

Sophomores display their talent by presenting the winning skit.

Homecoming 1970 was enthusiastically kicked off with a school pep assembly. Each class presented a skit and the Sophomore skit was judged as best. The Sophomores again showed the spirit by winning the coveted spirit stick. The assembly was followed by a parade that exhibited class spirit in the form of floats. The Senior float was judged first in the competition. Friday night provided another exciting exhibition of football when the Knights beat the Central Lions. Saturday night proved to be equally fun and enjoyable as the school rocked with the sound of "The Inside Front." "Underwater Fantasy" was a success.

"Sink Central in the Mid-State Nine" was the senior brainstorm that won the float competition.

The cast takes a well-deserved final curtain call.

Once again proving the talent at RHS was this year's fall play, THE MIRACLE WORKER, directed by Mr. Michael Hartnett and student directors Kelly McGownd and Brenda Swartz. The setting is the Keller household in Alabama around 1880. Captain Keller (John Eastman) and his wife Kate (Carol Fisher) are the parents of a blind and deaf daughter, Helen, who was played by Senior Debbi Rosenberg. Annie Sullivan (Connie Joos) who was once blind like Helen is hired to teach Helen. The play beautifully presents the hard struggle of Annie Sullivan in her attempt to reach Helen. Connie Joos and Debbi Rosenberg acted magnificently together. Also putting on good performances were Lloyd Maxwell as James and Irish Harper as Aunt Ev. Kay Williams as the maid, Viney, and Charles Glover playing Anagnos supported the play with good acting. The Miracle Worker ended appealingly when Annie Sullivan was finally rewarded with a small sign of improvement in Helen.

The RHS Guard has completed another successful year. Guard is a volunteer service to the community and school. New this year is their pre-school class on Saturday morning besides the regular swim school. They also serve the school by timing at meets. During summer months Guard instructs handicapped children. Guard presented their annual water show to the theme of Underwater Heroes in the fall of last year. The various skits included Aquaman, Roger Ram-boat, Super Fin, and Underwater Dog—all take-offs from cartoon heroes. The skits were written and directed by head guards Ray Clubb, Scott Krieger, Cindy Mathias, Tom Pula, Paula Rushing, and Kathy Schmidt.

Much to his stomach's discontent, Terry Jermac is eating a lot less for A.F.S.

In an effort to raise money to bring a foreign student to Richwoods and to send an RHS one to another country, the annual A.F.S. Week was again held this year. The week began with a movie, "The Silencers," shown on Monday. Tuesday featured a panel by area exchange students. A Sock Hop after school was held on Wednesday. Week-long fund-raising events included "Eat Less for A.F.S.," and Pretty Legs, Ugly Man, and paper chain contests between classes. Saturday climaxed the week was the A.F.S. dance Saturday evening, with "Copperfield" providing the music. A great deal of student interest and support combined to make A.F.S. Week the best one yet.

Avid movie-goers seem to be enjoying the snack more than "The Silencers."

Vice-Presidential candidate Dave Rogers and Presidential candidate John Dawson.

This year's Student Council elections were held at the end of March. The presidential candidates were Cliff Myers and John Dawson. Their running mates were Mark Steveson and Dave Rogers, respectively. On Tuesday of the week, March 30, the candidates presented an assembly outlining their platforms. Cliff Myers' platform consisted of an individual study program, auditing of courses, a big name group at a dance, and a new homeroom and honor roll policy. The election of Advisory Board members, the installment of a coke machine and snack bar, and a more effective and authoritative Student Council were the points of John Dawson. Voting proved Cliff Myers president and Mark Steveson vice-president of the Student Council for the 1971-72 school year.

Saturday night March sixth was the night of the biggest party of the year. The event was the annual Vice-Versa. It was sponsored by the Senior class. The theme was The Party, and "The Brick-road," a group from Iowa, provided the sensational music. The gymnasium was decorated like a house and in the center was a fireplace. Outside of the gymnasium, the effect was that of the exterior of a house. "The Party" lasted from 8:30 to 11:30 and was a great success for those who attended!

How Can We Forget?

The Freedom Shrine was put to good use during Black Week at Richwoods.

Sybil King, a student at Bradley, explains the fundamentals of Black Week.

"How Can We Forget?" was the theme of this year's Black Week. The purpose was for Richwoods black students to have a chance to express themselves and to examine the different aspects of their culture. The week commenced with a student skit directed by a Bradley student, Sybil King. Throughout the week, several workshops were held. These included a Soul Workshop demonstrating black culture. Hairstyles, clothing, and soul food was featured. A Sock Hop was held after school and one of the WIRL disc jockeys, Rick Ricardo, played the records. The week came to a close with an assembly of gospel singing.

Black students expressed themselves by making use of the library showcase.

As a part of Black Week, posters were displayed throughout various parts of the school.

From the first chords of the overture to the final curtain, "Half a Sixpence" was truly a smashing evening of laughter and music. Written by Beverly Cross, the play concerns a poor apprentice, Arthur Kipps, his sudden rise to prosperity, his return to poverty, and his finding himself at last. Jon Noetzel as Kipps and Sue Addy as Ann were perfect as the leads. Debbie Brown, Sandy Greer, Sally Johnson, Hollie Gonerka, Scott Krieger, Lloyd Maxwell, and Bob Barnes as the shopgirls and apprentices blended magnificently. Fine performances were turned in by Debbie Schwied as the high-society girl, Tim Arehart as a riotous playwright, and Greg Edwards as the hard-driving employer. Dancers and singers all did their part to make the show a hit. Under the excellent direction of Mrs. Sara Drew and her assistant, Cliff Garstang, and with Mr. Don Coven's eye-catching choreography, "Half a Sixpence" certainly deserved the rousing standing ovations it received.

Mississippi Queen

Once again, the Richwoods prom was a wonderful success. The Junior class, sponsored by Mrs. Marylee Bales and Mr. Randy Sleeth, presented "Mississippi Queen." The decorations consisted of a riverboat placed in the center of the gym and murals along the walls. Music was provided by Bill Hardesty and the Holiday Brass. As in previous years, a prom queen was chosen from the Senior class. Those girls nominated, and their escorts, were Eileen Brekke and Jon Noetzel; Patti Coyman and Doug Rittler; Arlene Keturi and Steve Thompson; Denise Layman and Jeff Simons; Cyndy Long and Chris Voegele; Denise Pabon and Mark Mahoney; and Charlene Pegg and Mark Ruff. Those in attendance cast their votes and a final tally showed that Charlene Pegg was queen. Members of the Sophomore class supervised the ticket-taking and ballots, the coat check and the refreshments.

We've Only Just Begun to Live

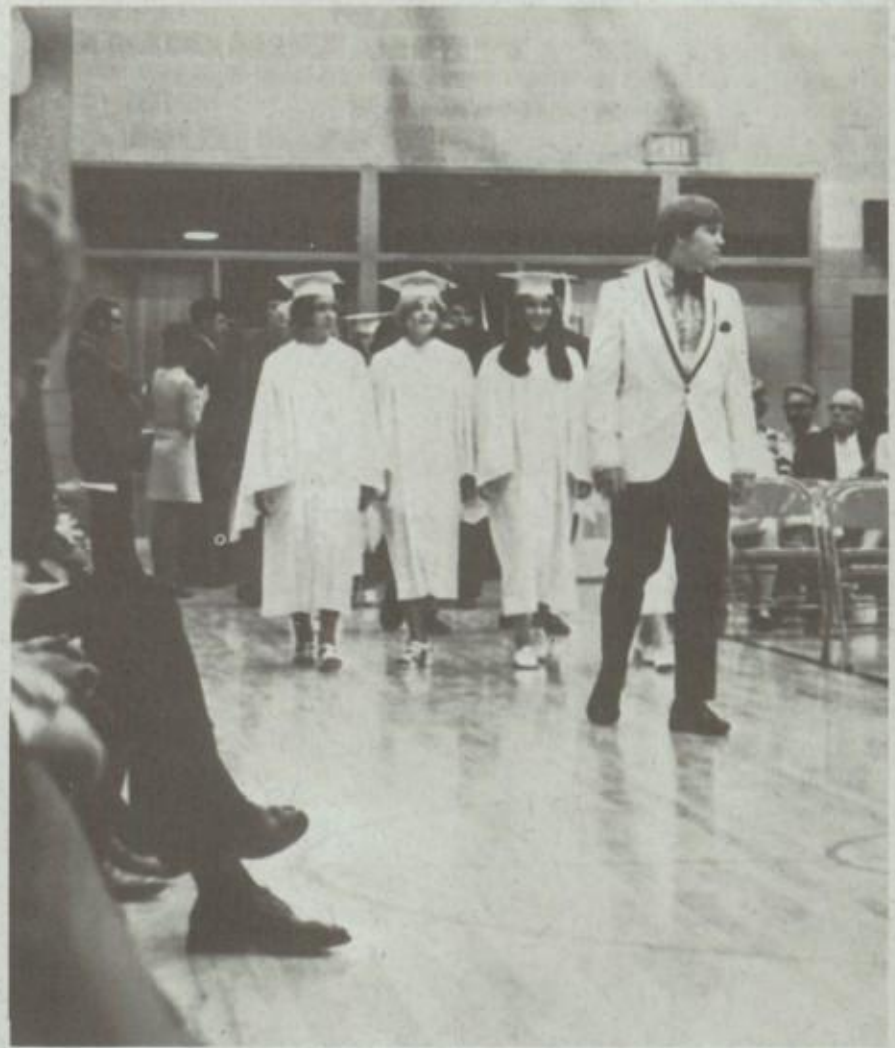

"We've only just begun to live" was the theme of this year's graduating class. The religious service opened with the class marching to their seats while the Richwoods Band played the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance." Suzanne Wilton gave the invocation. Combined choirs sang three selections, "Rejoice in The Lord Alway," "Now Past, the Deadly Peril," and "Glorious Everlasting."

Jon R. Burnham, a director of Youth for Christ presented his address to the 476 seniors. Mr. Burnham challenged the class' theme in his address, "Have You Really?" Douglas Cheney gave the benediction. Jeffrey Carroll, Junior class president, and Brent Birdsall, vice-president, were marshalls.

The 1971 graduates seriously listen to the addresses made.

Three Basic Gains—Security, Knowledge, Sense of Purpose

These two graduating seniors solemnly await their entrance.

This year's graduating class chose as their flower and colors the peace rose and jade green and ivory respectively. Their class gift was a donation of $1,000 to cancer research in leukemia. The gift was in honor of a fellow classmate, Steve Register who recently died of leukemia. Raymond Clubb, in his speech, compared the "confusion of beginning high school" with what the grads' futures hold for them. The key to coping with the new situations is self-discipline and adjustment. The three basic gains suggested to the graduates were security, knowledge, and sense of purpose. Lori Gramley also addressed the class. She said that difference and polarization need not be absolute. The prerequisite of acceptance is to accept oneself first. Thus comes peace of mind and ability to face the world.

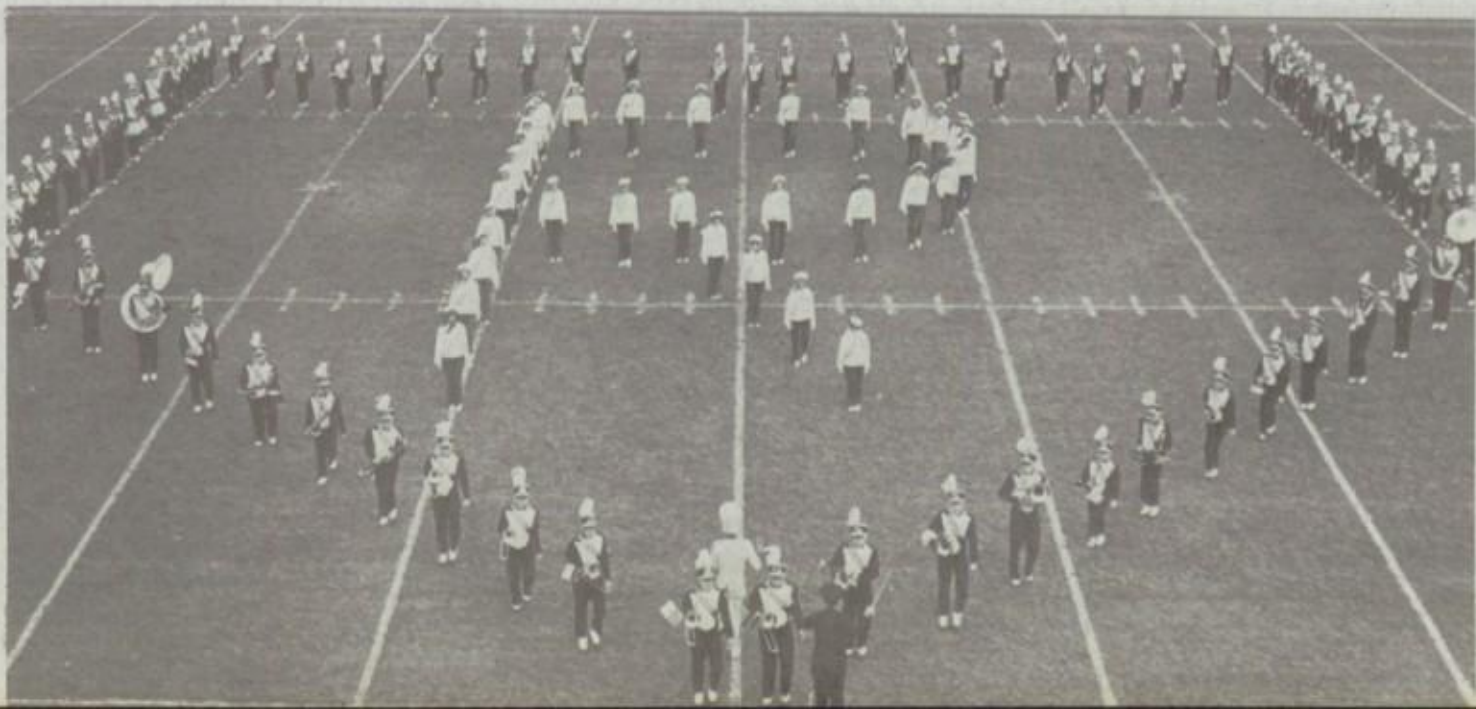

School board member, Mrs. Mary McDade addresses the class of 1971.

Sparked by the efforts of senior co-captains Jeff Simons (42—2—0, 30 pins) and Bill Anderson (37—7—1), the wrestlers finished with a dual meet record of 14—4—0 and were undefeated in Mid-State 9 of Illini dual matches.

Simons became the first wrestler in RHS history to win the state meet, and along with Anderson's 7th place finish, placed the team 8th in state, out of the more than 400 teams competing. It was Coach Easter's highest place finish since coming to Richwoods.

Also contributing to the Knights' efforts were seniors Mike Woodhouse (21—14—1, 1st in district) and Daryl Klusendorf (32—11—4, 1st in Illini and district) junior Denny Reynolds (33—26—2, 3rd in district) and strong sophomore wrestler Kevin Tillhof (33—4—1, 1st in Illini and district). The Knights were 3rd at the Granite City tournament, U. High invitational and Mid-State 9 tournament and 1st in the Illini and district tournaments. Also, the team placed 8th in sectional and had a fine 8th place finish in the state tournament.

The 1971 Excalibur under the direction of co-editors-in-chief Diane Rigley and Gail Masterson worked to publish an edition describing the events of the past year. Beginning with the lay-outs for the placements of pictures to the planning of subject sequence, the staff tried to present a detailed picture of the 1971 school year. Through explanatory paragraphs for each subject, candid pictures, art-work, and picture captions, Excalibur tries to present the Richwoods positive attitude. Throughout the year, during page designs, composition, and proofreading, improvements were continually made. Until the last moments before publishing, changes and additional work was being put into the Excalibur. Now with the completed edition from the Excalibur staff, we hope to have presented a clear, concise, and detailed description of the past year.

The Shield's fourteenth year in existence proved to be a most informative and entertaining year for the entire student body. A biweekly distribution provides for fifteen issues of editorials, news, features, sports, and pictures.

The editorial page of the Shield provided a space for any student who wished to express his view on almost any subject. "One Step Backwards" added humor to the paper by interviewing widely fictitious characters.

Mr. Ed Utley's experience along with Jane Naffziger's talent, provided for a really great 1970-71 newspaper.

Dear Richwoods:

For me, this year has been a year of great experiences, that have helped me to understand a little more of the world where we live in. I hope it has helped us to reach what I think is the most important—"to understand and love everybody, even people of different nationalities and ideas.

I want to thank all the people that have had something to do with my being in the U.S.A., Richwoods, and the family that gave me their love and home.

Love
Jose Abadias

Marhabah!

This past summer I had the opportunity to go abroad, find a new home and a loving family, develop new friendships, and gain a greater understanding of mankind. I spent my summer months in Istanbul, Turkey as Brenda Hizalan.

Each individual AFSer comes home with his own unique experiences and special memories of his stay abroad. But, one thing that can always be found in a returnee is his new outlook on the world and the people in it.

Thank you for all my special wonderful memories of Turkey and for helping me make that Discovery and find peace.

Student Council Strives to Be More Involved

By Initiating the

PTS Organization

Under the Leadership

Of Brian Cohen

This year's student council worked for more student concern in the council's activities. They began by initiating open sessions where all students free that period were allowed to observe the assembly's meetings. Also additional improvements were made in the student tutoring program. This year Student Council again joined in different community projects such as the Canned Food Drive, Bundle Days, and Toys for Tots. It also played a large part in helping PTS, the newly formed organization for better relationships between faculty, students, and parents.

Many of the different forms of student entertainment were also sponsored by Student Council. The year began with the Homecoming festivities including the victory dance "Under Water Fantasies". During Football and basketball seasons, after-game dances were also held to provide students with a place to gather. AFS Week was again a Student Council success this year. Election of the 1971-72 officers concluded the year with plans for another excellent year of Student Council.

Girls Choir is a select group of junior and senior girls. They are selected for the vocal abilities and their ability to blend with other voices. This year, the 24 girls sang in the annual Robin Ceremony, Christmas and Winter Concerts, Spring Concert and Baccalaureate. Besides these regular performances, this year they sang for the PARC at Allied Agency.

the PARC and On Television

The 29 girls comprising the Sophomore Girls Choir this year again presented choral selections for the "Ann Lane Show". The girls practice every day for this and other choral performances. Some of these include the Robing Ceremony, the Christmas and Choral Concerts and the Fine Arts Festival at the end of the school year.

Ensembles Bring Forth a New Sound

This was a very outstanding year for the Boy's Ensemble. The members practiced Tuesday mornings, working on popular songs such as My Girl, Something, and many traditional songs also. The Boy's Ensemble appeared at various schools in the area and at the Winter and Spring concerts.

The 1970-71 Choraliers were chosen from those in Girl's Choir and A Cappella who tried out at the beginning of the school year. Choraliers sang such selections as Dream a Little Dream and Gifts for Giving. Choraliers performed at various places such as the State Hospital and area Schools.

Harmoknights

The sixteen members of Harmo-Knights this year provide us once again with a delightful selection of songs. Practicing every Monday after school, they used many types of songs in their repertoire. Madrigal songs such as The Nightengale were sung with American folk songs like The Green Grass Starts to Grow. The Harmo-Knights sang for different social groups at the Voyager Inn, the Ramada Inn, and at Junction City.

DANCE CLUB: N. Heller, S. Johnson, C. Goetz, L. Williams, P. Gabel, B. Fink, C. Daane, C. Tucker, R. Ryan, L. Schewe, L. Smith, J. Crawmer, K. Snyder, Donald Coven.

The members of the Dance Club pirhouetted through its second year, under the direction of Mr. Donald Coven. The members performed for various clubs and functions throughout the year. They worked on dancing and dramatic skills along with offering their help in the choreography in the school plays.

Industrial Arts Club, under the direction of Mr. Gary Kresin and Mr. David East were kept very busy this year. Along with practicing in various craft and woodworking projects the members also enjoyed themselves at their swim parties and football games. The club also went to St. Louis on a field trip. Ten of the members of the club went to the State convention in the spring. Kevin Wagner a junior is an officer in the State Club.

Interested students again volunteered their time this year to help in the science classes as lab assistants. Headed by Mr. Ken Powell, the students' jobs ranged from setting up laboratory equipment to grading papers. Science faculty and students depend greatly on the lab assistant and his abilities.

A new group called the Ecology club was organized this year and it was very active in many projects. They held regular meetings during which they discussed environmental pollution in many different aspects. Their supervisor Mr. Raymond Gross, also helped organize a paper drive to reuse old paper instead of allowing further pollution by its disposal. The group worked on many different solutions to help stop Pollution.

Monitors lend many helping hands and steps to the office staff and faculty. The approximately 75 students do such tasks as delivering passes and messages, collecting attendance, checking absentees and doing all around services to both students and faculty.

Student Secretaries provide valuable services to teachers and the office staff by answering the telephone, taking and sending messages, and by doing typing and filing. All they receive for all this work is the experience. But experience and the satisfaction of helping someone is often all the reward these girls need.

The Library Assistants this year under the supervision of Mrs. Beverly Bloomfield offer help to anyone seeking assistance in the library. They locate magazines, microfilm, or books and perform many helpful tasks such as handling all circulating books and returning them to their proper locations. These librarians gain excellent experience along with maintaining a valuable service.

The Audio-Visual Aids Department headed by Mr. George Mathis enriches and assists teaching methods. The "A.V. Men" volunteer their time to deliver, help run, or even teach the operation of their equipment. They aid teachers and classes by assisting with film, tape recorders, and many other types of supplementary equipment.

Audio-Visual Workers: Mr. George Mathis, J. Rose, J. Tauscher, A. Bettinghaus, P. Duane, T. Steinbach, C. Drew.

Boys Get Involved Through Key Club

Key Club Officers—Cliff Garstang, Mark Blaydes, Roy King

One of the most important service clubs in the Peoria area is the Kiwanis Club. The Key Club meets every Thursday after school. The members of Key Club participated this year in several activities. Selling peanuts, running a Ham booth, a Soap and Paper Drive, Save a Tree, and the Heart Fund, were a few of them. The Key Club is under the direction of Mr. Charles Bratt.

HEALTH CAREERS M. West, L. Mahony, M. Young, P. Snarr, L. Kelly, S. Benzel, N. Mullendore, G. Burkholder, P. Wartick, P. Quickstad, D. Henderson, S. Anderson, S. Binder, B. Johnson

Many aspects of future occupations in the field of health were discussed during the monthly meetings of the Health Careers Club under the direction of Miss Margret O'Reilly. Topics discussed during the year included nursing, occupational therapy, dentistry, and mental health. This year the club also took a field trip to Chicago.

One of the oldest clubs at Richwoods, Future Teachers of America, has been in existence here for thirteen years. FTA helps students to explore the teaching profession and also increases their interest in this field. Again this year FTA provided us with the Homecoming mums. They also enjoyed numerous guest speakers.

Forensics Team Distinguishes Itself with Contest Play "Medea" and Individual Winners

The speech team of Richwoods had a very busy and rewarding year. Participating at eleven major meets in the state, Richwoods was appropriately represented and received many high awards for its work. Lori Gramley received a first at the National Forensics League meet held at Bradley. Loren Brandt, a sophomore, received a first at the District Tournament at Central. Also in the limelight was Cliff Garstange, who captured a first at District along with many other honors throughout the year. Many people participated in the tournaments and combined to represent Richwoods at all the tournaments in the State under the competent and skillful direction of Mr. Hammacher.

The 1970-71 Royalette year was one of the most exciting in the history of Richwoods. This was Mr. Don Coven's first year as director of the Royallettes. He and Royalette of the Year, Patti Coyman, made all the routines for the thirty-six members of the group. Using dance steps with the drill marches made for some very original routines. The Royalletes were appropriately rewarded by being chosen out of five schools in the nation to be in the National Scholastic Drill Team Association's yearbook. They were also chosen to perform at the sectional basketball game at Bradley. Performing nine times throughout the year, a variety of theses and songs were used to present the marches. From the traditional "Anchors Away" to the outstanding contemporary song, "Love Story", the Royalletes marched to the tunes at football and basketball games throughout the year. Class Representatives for the year were seniors Cathy Schmidt, Karen Solovy, and Patti Coyman, juniors Kathy Meyers, Donna Defenbaugh and sophomore representative Jeannie Jackson.

Bridge Club: SEATED: Mrs. Dascher, H. Frow, STANDING: C. Dutton, d. Hautala, H. Frow, S. Windler.

Bridge Club is a new organization this year and seems to be quite promising. Its advisors Miss Susan Smith and Mrs. Kenna Dascher instruct members on the fundamentals of the game and give helpful points to the more skilled players. Everyone is welcome and the games prove exciting.

The Chess club meets once a week and members learn and practice better chess skills. Mr. Leonard Crooks, the club's advisor, teaches and organizes tournaments for the more skilled players. The club is for beginners and expert chess players and proves quite challenging to all.

The definite assets to the physical education department are its Senior Leaders. Aside from taking the attendance count, locker room supervision, equipment preparation and assistance in testing, these seniors must also be leaders in personal qualifications of neatness, personality, and enthusiasm. After gaining knowledge and responsibility in the special junior class, they are then selected and appointed to their new position and exact duties.

R Club Officers: Ray Bach, and Jeff Simons.

Richwoods R Club is composed of all athletes earning a varsity letter in any sport. During the year R Club sponsored many activities to promote spirit and school pride. This year's R Club directed the annual R Club-Faculty Game, a steak fry and picnic, and a new event entitled a donkey game which consisted of a sports while riding a mule. Also again this year R Club sold sweatshirts, programs, and ushered at games. R Club is advised by Mr. Rick Snarr and Mr. Rich Clopper.

Mark Ruff reaches high over Mr. Easter in the R Club-Faculty game.

Annual Guard Show Honors "Super Heroes"

Under the direction of Mr. Rich Clopper and Mr. Joe Clement Richwoods Guard again performed an excellent service to the community this year. The members of guard as in the previous years taught fundamentals in swimming and diving to grade school and preschool children. The classes were divided according to age and skill and offered a period of practical swimming experience and direction, along with the fun. The annual Guard Show was the highlight of the Guard year. Its theme was "Super Heroes." The different skits included capers led by "Super Fin," "Underwater Dog," and "Aquaman."

These female Guard members work hard when timing at swim meets.

Baietto Promotes POSITIVE Attitude

Principal, Mr. Robert E. Baietto

Assistant Principal, Mrs. Rachel Shepherdson

Richwoods High School in 1971 has continued to progress in new programs and new ideas. These ideas and programs have been accomplished only with the help and guidance of the entire administration. Mr. Baietto and Mrs. Shepherdson have been helpful in many areas and they have maintained the positive attitude at R.H.S. during the entire school year. Freedom along with responsibility was given to the students. The idea of making each student a responsible person, originated with the administration. We hope that Richwoods will always be guided by an efficient administration as it is now.

Steve Register
Born: 1953
Died: 1971

For every thing there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted:
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep; and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
a time to rend, and time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Be

Positive . . .

Normally Gail and I would collaborate on this final bit of written material, but because Gail has already gone on to college, I am to be held solely accountable for these words.

It is virtually impossible to even begin to show my gratitude to the innumerable people who aided us in some way in the publication of the 1971 EXCALIBUR. I would personally like to thank the many teachers who extended a great measure of kindness, understanding, and, above all, PATIENCE, to me in particular, because for a time it was unusual to see me WITHOUT a pass of some kind. This degree of leniency was invaluable in order to make this yearbook a reality. Mrs. Evelyn Campbell deserves a good deal of praise for her unqualified support here, also.

We greatly appreciate the help of our editors, the entire staff, and all their contributions to the 1971 EXCALIBUR: Cliff Garstang, Diana Smith, Betsy Wilton, Brenda Pakier, Roni Crumrine, Barb Haefli, Marty Mitchener, and Karen Unes. We are also very grateful for the perseverance of all the photographers at Rembrandt's and student photographers, Dan Bittner and Greg Brown, who invariably received eleventh hour calls for pictures and always came through at deadline time. Much thanks goes to Mr. Joe Gardner, the American Yearbook Company Advisor, for all of his guidance, and Mr. Ed Utley, who undoubtedly signed more passes than he ever realized.

I'd like to take this opportunity to tell all the editors of the SHIELD what an endearing experience sharing the publications office with them has been this year . . .

A very special thanks must go to the two gentlemen who had to contend with my incessant insanity every day during third hour in the "pub": Brian Carter and Roger Clayton.

And finally, I want to express our extreme gratitude to our parents whose tolerance and constant willingness to help was most profoundly needed.

Diane Rigley
